

WILF IMPACT CENTER CONVERSATIONS

Wilf Impact Center Conversations is a speaker series that highlights how current events impact civil rights and civil liberties.

Who Has the Right to Shelter? A Conversation on the Intersection of Housing and Immigration Law

Professor Andrew Scherer, Professor Claire R. Thomas '11, and Joshua Goldfein from The Legal Aid Society will lead a conversation on the right to shelter in New York City and how it affects migrants. The panel will answer complex questions about the housing and migrant crisis currently facing the city. Discussion will be opened to audience questions following the panel.

DATE: Wednesday, November 15, 2023

TIME: 12:50 p.m.–1:50 p.m.

Pizza will be served.

PLACE: Room W320

RSVP: www.nyls.edu/impactRSVP

This event is co-sponsored by NYLS Housing Rights Clinic and NYLS Student Organizations: Immigration Law Students Association, American Constitution Society, and National Lawyers Guild

This event is for NYLS students, faculty, and staff.

