LAW, RELIGION, AND CIVIL SOCIETY IN CHALLENGING TIMES

Please join us as we explore the rapidly changing legal landscape for both faith-based and secular nonprofit organizations. These civil society organizations provide vital services for all New Yorkers and play essential roles in American democracy, but their future is uncertain in our increasingly polarized social and political environment. The program will feature a keynote dialogue bridging partisan and religious divides, followed by panel discussions of tax, nonprofit, and immigration law. A continental breakfast will be served.
