Please join us for a screening of Voices Against Anti-Asian Hate, a timely, compelling film focusing on race and current challenges to equality and social justice. This screening and panel discussion are intended to foster discussion and education as we find our collective voice to demand true respect for diversity as an entitlement of social justice and equity.

Voices Against Anti-Asian Hate brings awareness to discrimination against Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders (AAPI) through personal accounts of survivors and victims of race-related attacks and activists fighting anti-Asian violence. Through these narratives, the film delivers the message of the dire need for change and for larger conversations regarding hatred against all vulnerable communities.
